For his Renaissance Series, photographer Freddy Fabris captured a group of mechanics' dramatic yet comical reenactments of master paintings. In each photo, the men creatively mimic the poses and facial expressions of painted figures from pieces like Leonardo's Last Supper, Michelangelo's Creation of Adam, and Rembrandt's Anatomy Lesson, above. They even replace props from the paintings with

The nude, as a form of visual art that focuses on the unclothed human figure, is an enduring tradition in Western art. It was a preoccupation of Ancient Greek art, and after a semi-dormant period in the Middle Ages returned to a central position with the Renaissance. Unclothed figures often also play a part in other types of art, such as history painting, including allegorical and religious art
